

Moo and Yarn Studio

Crochet Internet Terms Cheat Sheet

Stay in the loop with crochet lingo from social media, forums, and craft communities!

Term	Meaning	Example
WIP	Work In Progress – A project currently being worked on.	“Here's my WIP blanket for #MondayMotivation”
CAL	Crochet-Along – A group project where many people crochet the same pattern or theme together.	“Joining the #CAL2025 — excited to start!”
Stash Busting	Using leftover or excess yarn from previous projects to make something new.	“This baby blanket is a total stash buster!”
Frog / Frogging	To undo your work (rip it out) when a mistake is made.	“Major frog session happening tonight after my mistake...”
Yarn Chicken	The suspense of finishing a project while unsure if there's enough yarn left.	“Playing yarn chicken on this last round...”

Bonus Hashtags & Lingo to Know

- #WIPWednesday – Show off your current projects mid-week
- #FinishedObject / #FO – Used to share completed crochet pieces
- #StashBusting – Tag for projects using up leftover yarn
- “Hooking” – Slang for crocheting (“hooking away this weekend!”)
- “Yarn Haul” – A post showing off newly purchased yarn
- “Yarn Barf” – The messy tangle that spills out when you pull from a skein
- “Crojo” – Crochet mojo; the drive or inspiration to crochet